

Master of Education in Administration and Supervision

- The MEDAS degree consists of 39 semester hours which includes a 6 hour practicum course in either Elementary or Secondary education.

MEDAS CORE

○	EDAS 5123	Ethics in Educational Leadership	3 credits
○	EDAS 5224	Organizational Development w/ Practicum	4 credits
○	EDAS 5323	Educational Leadership for Curriculum and Instruction	3 credits
○	EDAS 5343	Educational Leadership for Institutional Effectiveness	3 credits
○	EDAS 5803	Advanced Educational Research I	3 credits
○	EDAS 5424	School Operations and Management w/ Practicum	4 credits
○	EDAS 5523	Cultivating a Positive School Climate	3 credits
○	EDAS 5623	Public and Community Relations	3 credits
○	EDAS 5714	Politics, Law & the Schools w/ Practicum	4 credits
○	EDAS 5823	Advanced Educational Research II	3 credits
			33 credits

INTERNSHIP

○	EDAS 5906 A&B	Internship in Elementary Administration	6 credits
OR
○	EDAS 5916 A&B	Internship in Secondary Administration	6 credits
			6 credits

MEDAS DEGREE

39 credits - TOTAL

Application (non-refundable fee).....	$25.00
Tuition Deposit	$50.00
Cost per course	$1400.00
Internship/Practicum (1 course/6 credit hours).....	$4,200.00
Tuition rate effective July 1, 2015- June 30, 2016

All courses are seven weeks except EDAS 5906 and EDAS 5916. These internship experiences are 12 weeks.*

Completion of the curriculum for the MEDAS, with a minimum GPA of 3.0, must be accomplished within a 5 year period from initial enrollment in the program.*

*Cost per course includes tuition, fees, and resources necessary for completing coursework including, but not limited to, ebooks, online subscriptions, reading materials, and textbooks.

Southern Wesleyan University reserves the right to modify course delivery based on enrollment volume. This could include changing from a fully onsite format to an online or hybrid format. Our desire is to provide a rich academic experience throughout your degree program.

Southern Wesleyan University reserves the right to change any of the rules and regulations of the University at any time, including the right to withdraw curricula and specific courses, alter course schedule, alter course content, and alter fee structure.